THE HUSKIE '84

White City High School
White City, Kansas

We dedicate this yearbook to the memory of Mrs. G. L. Cabrales because of her service to our community as a member of the Rural Vista Board of Education. We present this book as a small token of our appreciation of her keen interest in our education.

TOTAL ECLIPSE OF THE HEART

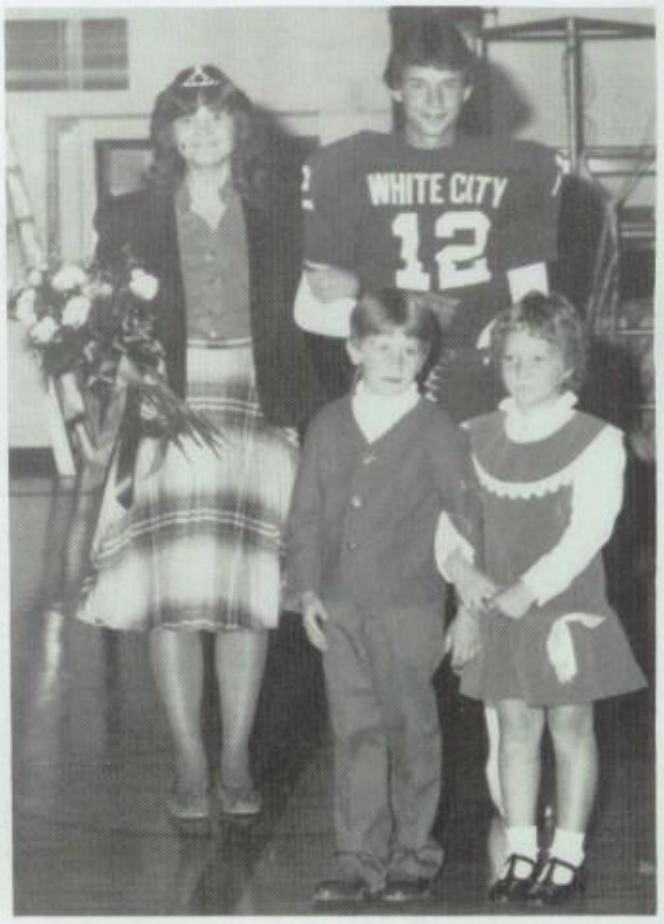
Spirits ran high as students prepared for the Football Homecoming celebration. We were busy decorating floats and halls. Planning each day's wardrobe for Spirit Week was especially fun. Rain cancelled our parade; however, the Huskie spirit thundered at the afternoon pep rally. Our spirit would not be dampened!

As the rain continued into the evening, the coronation ceremony was moved inside to the gymnasium. We extended congratulations to Monty Stilwell and Ilona Bixler as they were crowned King and Queen. Unfortunately, the Huskies fell to defeat on the gridiron.

Following the game, students and alumni enjoyed themselves at the dance held in the gymnasium. As the evening closed, we all held many special memories of our Homecoming week.

Crownbearers L to R: Michael Wildman, Jayme Pitts, Heather Nelson, and Joey Rice. Standing: Rhonda McNeal, Monty Stilwell, Ilona Bixler, Kevin Hultgren, Susan Blythe, and Corby Webb.

Monty crowns Ilona and they kiss in congratulations.



One more smile for the picture-taking crowd!

Three pretty smiles from our queen candidates!

Ten Little Indians

Ten little Indian boys going out to dine
One choked his little self and then there were nine —
Nine little Indian boys sat up very late.
One overslept himself and then there were eight.
Eight little Indian boys traveling in Devon
One got left behind and then there were seven —
Seven little Indian boys went to pickup sticks
One got chopped in half and then there were six.
Six little Indian boys playing with a hive;
A bumble stung one, and then there were five.
Five little Indian boys going in for law
One got in Chancery and then there were four.
Four little Indian boys — going out to sea.
A red herring swallowed one; and then there were three.
Three little Indian boys walking in the zoo
A big bear hugged one and then there were two.
Two little Indian boys playing with a gun
One shot the other and then there was one.
One little little Indian boy left alone
He went and hanged himself, then there were none.

Kevin and Susie

Corby Webb and Susan Blythe (at right) were crowned Basketball Homecoming King and Queen on Friday, February 10. Senior attendants to Susie and Corby were Kim Jansen, Becky Britt, David Comp, and Kevin Hultgren. Representing the junior class were Sandy Orr and Troy Dierking; the sophomore class, Bobby Hulse and Jean Bixler; the freshman class, Marlys Lindsly and Keith Jansen.

Spirits ran high the entire week as the Huskies prepared for the special event. Each day new decorations donned the lockers and students came to school dressed in spirit-building costumes.

Although the boys and girls fell to defeat on the court, everyone enjoyed closing the Homecoming celebration with the traditional dance following the games.

State competitors — Congrats, Marlys, on your "I"!

High-Q

Our High-Q team did very well this year considering this was our first year. Under the leadership of coach Kirk Kelley, we started our season by eliminating members in order to designate the Varsity team, which included Olaf Mueller, Dawn Dickman, Chris Averill, Steven Oliver, and Mike Stenstrom. Our win-loss record for our season was 2 - 4. Tournaments we competed in included Abilene and Harvey County. Our Varsity squad also participated in qualifying rounds for T.V. High-Q tournaments at Butler County Community College and Washburn University.

February 2 was an exciting day at WCHS when our team sponsored its first intra-school tournament. Thirty-two students participated, and the winners are pictured below. We're all looking forward to an even more active season next year.

1st Place: Mike Stenstrom, Aaron Holm, Ken Kuntzman, and Susan Blythe.

2nd Place: Jerold Spohn, John Diekmann, Robbie Kraus, and Kim Pitts.

3rd Place: Marlys Lindsly, Dan Ereth, Kevin Hultgren, and Sylvia Anderson.

Mr. Kelley

Celebrate the Victory!
